

Long Term Plans for Towns Board Member Biography

Amanda Tomlinson, Chief Executive of Black Country Housing Group

Amanda has been Chief Executive of Black Country Housing Group since 2013. Prior to that she operated at Executive level for over 10 years and has a professional background in Finance as a former Finance Director with CIPFA qualification.

Amanda has held a number of non-executive director roles and is currently Chair of Active Black Country. Amanda became Governor at City of Wolverhampton College in January 2021 and is Vice-Chair as well as Chair of its Remuneration Committee.

Amanda is passionate about addressing inequalities in our local communities and works with organisations which create positive social impact.